

ALINA CHUA

Principal Autism Consultant

MS ALINA CHUA is a psychologist by training and holds a Bachelor of Social Science, 2nd Class Upper Honours degree from the National University of Singapore.

A clinical doctoral candidate, she has extensive experience in working with individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders and their families. An extremely skilled therapist and clinician, she has developed and implemented numerous programmes relating to social skills and problem-solving for individuals with autism.

Ms Chua has also developed teaching protocols for various social tools, which were successfully implemented for individuals with Asperger and High Functioning Autism.

Apart from her clinical experience, Ms Chua had held tutoring appointments in Australian universities.

Ms Chua currently holds the position of Autism Consultant at Pathlight School, the first autism school in Singapore offering a unique blend of mainstream academics and life skills. She is intimately involved in and a valued member of the Secondary School academic and curricula team in Pathlight School. Ms Chua also consults with Autism Resource Centre (Singapore) and is one of the key consultants providing specialist autism training and coaching to professionals and educators as well as parents and caregivers in a wide variety of autism-related subjects.
